IS AWARDED THE

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

for extraordinary contributions to the V Corps, United States Army, Europe and Seventh Army from April 2005 to March 2007. During this period, [REDACTED] provided exceptional service as a volunteer in various capacities in support of the V Corps community. Her unselfish contribution of time, energy, and creative talent positively impacted the lives of the Soldiers, their families, and civilians throughout the vast range of V Corps. Her unparalleled leadership throughout deployments and redeployments was invaluable to keep spirits and morale high. Her selfless service in caring for the families on the home front ensured that Soldiers were able to remain focused on the mission in Iraq and thus significantly contributed to the Global War on Terrorism. [REDACTED] distinguished service reflects great credit on her and the United States Army.
